

IIT- JEE 2009

Changing pattern of the IIT JEE is nothing new – recent years have experienced many such changes. However, the JEE 2009 there was a qualitative shift in the kind of questions asked – these do not require a lot of rigorous problem solving, but rather a fairly good understanding of the concepts and the ability to comprehend and analyse. This shift is welcome. The major changes: disappearance of assertion reasoning type of questions, subjective questions back in paper and negative marking in one or more than one correct choice types.
